Dear Katherine,
You are such a beautiful, beautiful,
loving, kind, wonderful,
angel!! Your beautiful smile and blue eyes can make the nicest day turn into the greatest day! Your little self reminds me of an elf, you who are tiny, sweet and so petite. My little blonde...
of whom I am - so FOND!!
With a zillion hugs
and kisses...

IN MEMORIAM

Michel Pessar
Class of '96

A yearbook is a reflection of the year and a record of events that shaped school life from the students' point of view. 1988-1989 has been called "the year of the family" at Norfolk Academy. This year, we decided to give you a true yearbook, a year in pictures, a sort of N.A. family photo album. There is a little copy and there are a few captions that will enable you to give names to faces and reminisce about the special relationships formed at this place called school as you page through the album in the years to come.

Carole

You don't know how to sing

These two pages are of the Class of '89 in past years.

Summertime.....

*"Winter turns to summer sadness turns to fun
keep your faith in me"
The Ramones*

Mary Carter Scott, Courtney Askew and Mark Ambrose take a break from the sunrays in Marco Island, Florida.

Alison "Darla" Cowand and Kate Turner do work, even in the summer!

Paige and Lily Dickerson pal around at Camp Greystone.

Timothy Jolis visits the Coast of Spain.

These happy campers take a break after canoeing on the James River.

Matthew Quick escapes from the rain in his uncle's house in Market Drayton, England.

Stefan Coleman enjoys playing in the waves at the beach.

Catherine Ash and her friend, Martine Van Meeteren, visit Madurodom in Den Haag, Holland.

Austin Hill catches a wave in Huntington Beach, California.

Mom and John accompany Amelia to the airport before her trip to Cape Cod.

Michael Wall waits patiently on the Lynnhaven Fishing Pier..

Summers aren't always real

Richard and Eric Crouch make a sandwich of John at Annabelle's Restaurant in Virginia Beach.

The Grand Canyon sets the scene for Sills O' Keefe.

Addie Onsanit spent the summer exploring the mountains of Switzerland.

John Barney and Shane Shapiro flex before going down the waterslide.

Ah, the joy of summer. Three glorious months of leisure and relaxation where surf, sand and enjoyment abound, as do Norfolk Academy students. Some of the N. A. "jet" set flew as far as France, England, and Spain on the Academy trip supervised by Mrs. Hume and Mrs. Brinkley, while others traveled to many exotic ports. Many of us stayed home and enjoyed the glory of the U. S. Local distractions included surfing trips, backpacking in the mountains, and sittin' on the beach. Others shot the rapids or enjoyed fishing and crabbing. What a way to start the memorable 88-89 school year in our album of life. We look back to the summer, the times with our friends, the work we did, the places we went, and the people we met. The album may close on another year, but the memories of the summer of '88 will stay with us forever.

Anne Marie Ambrose

Live fast. Be a spark and glow awhile; you'll be dead a long, long time. Be a shooting star and in one moment burning bright, like the night, make us stand in awe. Live fast. Be a supernova.
Explore now while you can, then flashing in the pan, be a streak of red against the grey. Do it youngdon't let the time slip away.

Bob Geldolf

God make bees
Bees make honey
God make man
Man make money
But Satan make woman
To come to rob man's money
Man smart but the woman smarter

Yellowman

Anne Dixcy Arrison

After awhile you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much. So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul, instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you learn that you really can endure...that you really are strong. And you really do have worth. And you learn and learn...with every goodbye you learn.

Anything can happen, child, ANYTHING can be.
Shel Silverstein

All these years I've been pushing so hard through high times and low times too but if I stop now
how could I know what I could do?

Bruce Hornsby

Margaret Elizabeth Powell

You can't erase my dreams,
you can only wake me up.

If you take life too seriously,
you might get hurt.

I've had the time of my life!

Bugs Bunny

Perry Keith Powell

In a nutshell....
You decide.

Mr. Glasow

Melanie Lynn Prestridge

Well if you want to sing out, sing out.
And if you want to be free, be free.
Cause there's a million things to be, you know that there are. You can do what you want. The opportunity's on. And if you can find a new way. You can do it today. You can make it all true, you can make it undo.

You see ah,ah,ah
It's easy ah,ah,ah
You only need to know.

Cat Stevens

Follow the Yellow brick road.
The Wizard of Oz

Daniel McLennan Purrington

Remember, No man is a failure who has FRIENDS!

Frank Kapra

If you think that you are beaten you are, If you think dare not,
you don't, If you like to win,
but you think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't.
If you think you will lose, you've lost, For out in the world we find, success begins with a fellows will, It's all in the state of mind.

Romy Lynn Radin

Though nothing can bring back the hour

Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower;

We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind.

William Wordsworth

Our noisy years seem moments in the being of the eternal silence...

Mark David Reid

The sunshine daydream, walking in the tall trees, going where the wind goes, blooming like a red rose.

Grateful Dead

Spirit of the rising sun lift me up.
Hold me and never let me fall.
Love me till I die; my heart won't wait. Soon I'll be gone... Sunshine...sunshine on me.

U2

Gregory Alexander Riley

Reach out, pierce the fine fabric on the sheltering sky, take repose.

Paul Bowles

One ought, every day at least, to hear a little song, read a good poem, see a fine picture, and if it were possible, to speak a few reasonable words.

Goethe

Alfred Francis Ritter III

Gabba Gabba
We accept you
We accept you
one of us

The Ramones

May the road rise with out you.

Public Image Ltd.

Ain't life great?

Jimmy Buffett

Barbara James Schlegel

And these children that you spit on as they try to change their world are immune to your consultations. They're quite aware of what they're going through.

David Bowie

Life is very short and there's no time for fussing and fighting my friend...we can work it out.

Lennon & McCartney

Shyness is nice but shyness can stop you from doing all the things in life you'd like to.

Morrissey

Elizabeth Lyn Shepherd

A smile can never be kept, it can only be given away.

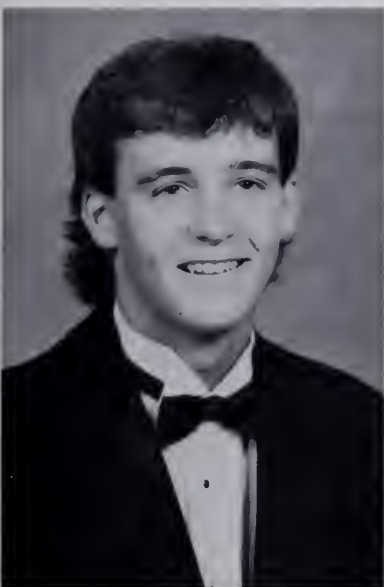

RN

So much to do...so much to be.

Winnie the Pooh

There are people I remember from the places in my past. Sometimes I can laugh and cry and I can't remember why, but I still love those good times gone by. Hold on to them close.

James Taylor

Marshall Bradley Shoemaker

Sing with me, sing for the years, sing for the laughter, sing for the tears, sing with me just for today, maybe tomorrow the good Lord will take you away

Aerosmith

Brave the storm to come, for it surely looks like rain.

Bob Weir

Some folks look for answers, others look for the fights, some folks in the treetops just lookin' for their kites. Well, I can tell your future, just look what's in your hand. Well, I can't stop for nothing, I'm just playin' in the band.

Grateful Dead

Lenbert Timothy Shropshire

I walk without evil, light or shadow, without being threatened or show any fear.

Wiseman of Japan

Follow the leader.

Rakim

Don't worry, be happy.

Bobby McFerrin

You can get away with anything in this world as long as you keep your composure.

Shrop.

Christopher Hamilton Smith

There is a great man who makes every man feel small. But the real great man is the man who makes every man feel great.

O.K. Chesterson

I'm not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday, and I like today.

William Allen White

Always laughing, never sad,
Sometimes naughty, never bad.

Unknown

Danielle Natassia Smith

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Is to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.

T.S.Elliot

Donna Ashton Smith

Look around and choose your ground, for long you live and high you fly, and smiles you give and tears you cry, and all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be.

Pink Floyd

As I walk down life's yellow brick road, I can only hope that I too will meet a lion, a scarecrow, and a tinman, and they will give me
the courage and the ability to think and love;
for without these, I shall surely never reach an Emerald City.

Anonymous

I've been happy lately thinking about the good things to come.

Cat Stevens

Geoffrey Hughes Smith

Forever young, I want to be forever young.
Do you really want to live forever
Forever - and ever.

Alphaville

Bryan Randall Spurrier

A thing that you simply believe in cannot be wrong.
D.H. Lawrence

Has the world changed or have I?

The Smiths

Cruisin' around in my GTO.
The Ramones

Burton McChesney Sundin

It's better to burn out than it is to rust.
Neil Young

I know what I know, I'll sing what I said.
We come and we go. That's a thing that I keep in the back of my head.

Paul Simon

Son, you gotta a panty on your head!
Raising Arizona

Daniel Jiro Tanaka

Without music life would be a mistake.

Friedrich Nietzsche

The material you've been given may not be cut to such a fashionable length.
You must look closely and develop its value, and its value lies in its strength.

Elliot Easton

Freedom above all.

Ludwig Von Beethoven

Lara Anne Terzis

Still crazy after all these years.

Paul Simon

Emancipate yourself from mental slavery.

Bob Marley

Laura Marguerite Tewes

A friend may go away, but the memory never does.

Papa Smurf

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost. That is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.

Henry David Thoreau

Sailing takes me away to where I always heard it could be. Just a dream and the wind to carry me. Soon I will be free.

Christopher Cross

Brian David Trickler

Friendship, the magician, knows this little trick whereby two people go their separate ways but always remain side by side.

Longfellow

Never complain about the bad hops. Anybody can catch the good ones.

Dotes

Hey, see you later, take it easy.

Kenneth Gauthier Trinder, II.

A new day, a new way
And new eyes to see the dawn.

Gone you way
I'll go mine and carry on.
CSN & Y

And what am I to do
Just what am I supposed to say
I can't change the world
But I can change the world in me,
I rejoice.

U2

Alison Rae Tyler

You are never given a wish without also being given the power to make it true.

Richard Bach

To balance a dream...
Was it worth it?

Alison Rae Tyler

Jasper Michiel Van Der Horst

For my life
Still ahead
Pity me

Queen

Veni, vidi, never mind.

Hanging on in quiet desperation
The time is gone, the song is over, thought
I'd something more to say.

Pink Floyd

Matthew Alan Van Hoose

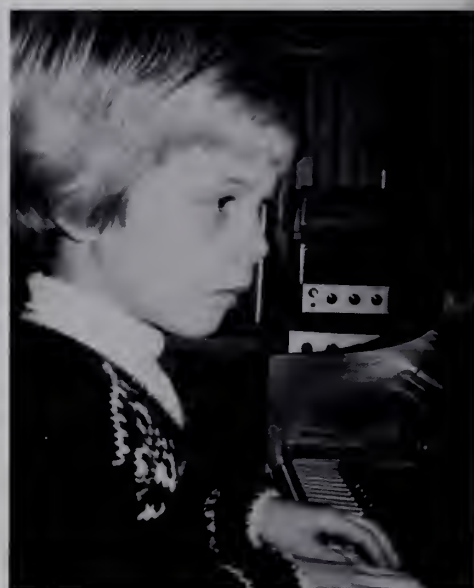

Ever since this gig began
My baby grand's
Been good to me.

Billy Joel and Ray Charles

Music in my generation is not what the public thinks of it, but what the musicians make of it.

Virgil Thompson

Play what you want but never be boring.
Robert Schumann

Elizabeth Louise Wardell

Elizabeth, Elspeth, Betsy, and Bess
They all went together to seek a bird's nest;
They found a nest with five eggs in,
They all took one and left four in.
Mother Goose

This is my time for the taking,
Take it, don't turn away.
I've been waiting all my life.
Simon and Garfunkel

I told you that we could fly
'cause we all have wings, but some of us don't know why.

INXS

Anna Michele Weisberg

...in all of the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Desiderata

You're special.
Remember that.

Meredith Blair Wilkins

You never leave a place you love, part of it you take with you, leaving a part of yourself behind.

Life is so generous a giver, but we, judging its gifts by their covering, cast them away as ugly, heavy or hard. Remove the covering and you will find beneath it a living splendor, woven of love, by wisdom with power.

Fra Giovanni

Robert Montgomery Wilson

If you would go high, use your own legs. Do not let yourselves be carried up; do not sit on the backs and head of others.

Nietzsche

I want, once and for all, not to know many things. Wisdom sets limits to knowledge too.

Nietzsche

The formula of my happiness: a Yes, a No, a straight line, a goal.

Nietzsche

Julia Paige Worth

Life, I love you!

Simon and Garfunkel

It takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow.

Rush

The more we think we know about, the greater the unknown.

Rush

Where have all the good times gone?

Van Halen

Robert Ralph Younce, III.

Hey goose! she's lost that loving feeling.

Maverick, Top Gun

We may lose and we may win, but we will never be here again...so take it easy.

The Eagles

Good friends we've had and good friends we've lost along the way. In this great future, you can't forget your past. So dry your tears I say.

Bob Marley

Susan Nicole Zimmerman

The Universe is only a figment of its own imagination.

Douglas Adams

I don't want to start any blasphemous rumors
But I think that God's got a sick sense of humor,
And when I die, I expect to find him laughing.

Depeche Mode

Everyone is promoted to his level of incompetence.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

Field Day '88, "A Blast from the Past," swept us from the Hectic eighties back to the beeboppin' fifties. The decorations of neon and graffiti, Cadillac fins and motorcycles, as well as the costumes of poodle skirts, bobby socks, and slicked-back hair inspired memories and wonder. The music of the 50's provided the perfect background for cheerful workers and enthusiastic browsers alike.

In the auditorium, students in grades 1-3 crooned such tunes as "At the Hop" and "Great Balls of Fire," while outside, the faculty follies, including the enimitable Supremes, and the student group "Delusion" entertained the "gangs" on N.A. "turf." The art show, silent auction, Country Store, Love and Elbow Grease, garden shop, raffle, athletic contests, and student booths not only provided unique merchandise and entertainment, but also raised record-breaking sums for many worthwhile educational programs.

A TOUCH OF CLASS

Meredith Wilkins, Harris Kay, Beth Powell, Jim Etheridge, Cary Forrest, Todd Kovner, Emily Farthing, and date Chris, all pose for a prom picture.

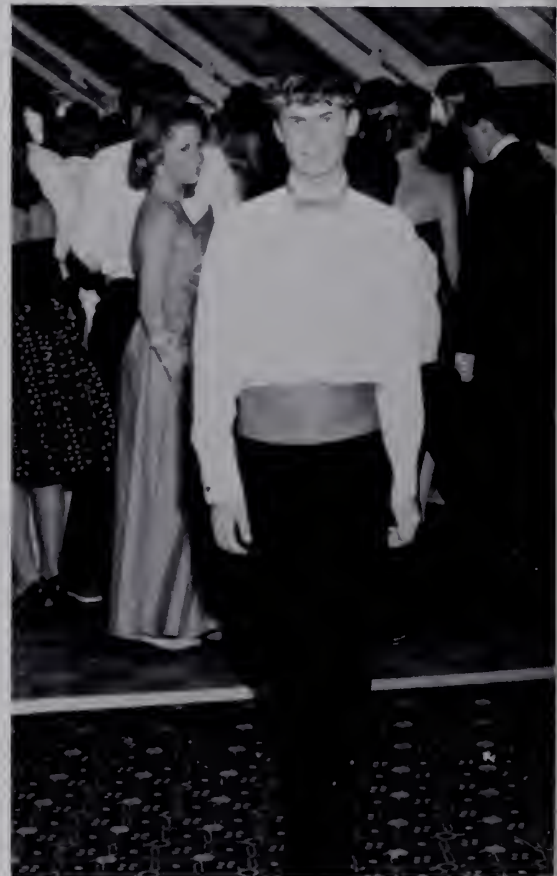

The 1988 Junior-Senior Prom was no ordinary one; The Prom goers and their dates certainly demonstrated a TOUCH OF CLASS, in keeping with the theme. After enjoying an elegant dinner at Masters, The Max, Tandoms, or at a friend's house, the anxious partiers went by classy limos to the Town Point Club, where they were treated to an exotic array of elegant foods and the sounds of INDECISION.

As always Prom '88 was the result of hours of hard work by the Junior Class who devoted much time to selling doughnuts, baked goods, and value check coupon books. The class came through to make Prom a smashing success. The Fadd club also dedicated their time to providing students with an alternative to driving in the interest of public safety.

Every student that helped out enjoyed the fruits of their labors on Prom night. When the magic evening was finally over, the Juniors could sit back, listen to some music and visit with friends. Everyone who attended will remember the evening fondly.

Ben Becker, looking absolutely smashing, seems to be enjoying the music by INDECISION.

LEAVING THE NEST

Ned Henry, Alison Knight, Mary Russ and Annie Adams celebrate their independence.

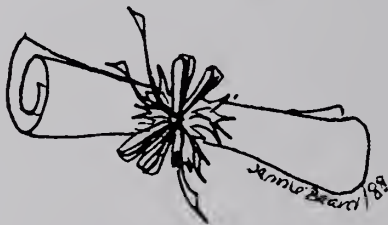

Yet another successful graduation took place in The Norfolk Academy annals. What a ceremony it was; seniors were honored for a broad range of subjects, proving the unique gifts the Class of '88 possessed. The ceremony opened with the current Tunstall President and Vice President, Karl Kottke and Tim Koch, addressing the crowd followed by the Valedictory Address from Scott London and Catherine Lawrence.

Most seniors proved that they, too, excelled in some way- from leadership to sportsmanship to excellence in English, Foreign Language, Original Writing, and Art.

Each year it seems that the graduating class eclipses the one from the previous years' in some way. Last year's Senior class demonstrated skill, creativity, individuality, and great intelligence. As the ceremony came to a close, this unique class turned the page to the next chapter of their lives.

Matt Mooney, Clare Gwathmey and Feri Hamidi-Toosi happily await the graduation ceremonies.

Mr. Tucker presents Veronica de la Torre with the William Seldon Memorial Award.

Anne Rowland happily makes her way down the aisle at the beginning of the graduation ceremonies.

On June 7, 1988 the sixth grade class said goodbye to Lower School and began their journey to Middle School. Jonathan Reed, Smith-Hofheimer Student Council President, delivered the opening prayer. Mary Ellen Shuttleworth read from the Bible. Mr. Tucker welcomed family, friends and fellow students who had assembled in the Burroughs Gymnasium. The fifth grade chorus performed several songs prior to Dr. Rachel Hopkins' presentation of the awards. Among the more prestigious awards were the Bess Moore Citizenship Award which went to Cameron Reeves, and the Vickery Alfriend Award presented to Jonathan Reed for his outstanding citizenship. Jennifer Jacobson concluded the ceremonies with prayer and the Class of '94 readied themselves for the Middle School and the future.

Uncommon Idea

Patty Masterson, coordinator of Commonwealth, discusses teaching methods with colleagues.

Once again, Norfolk Academy boasted an attendance of distinguished educators from across the country to participate in the "Commonwealth in Education." This four day intensive seminar about education and the educators included speakers such as John Goodlad, who spoke on "A Place Called School". In its third year at our site, the seminar was once again coordinated by our own Patty Masterson, and it hailed as its theme for 1988 "A Fresh Look at Learners, Learning Places, and Learning." As experts on the subjects from the mysteries of the mind to holistic teaching methods, the speakers captured the attention of the crowd, and their knowledge hit every possible interest in the minds of those who educate the youth of today. The participants kept busy in between seminars with activities such as hapkido, canoeing, and dependant group discussions. All left with a new look at education and a wealth of knowledge to take home with them.

BUILDING UP

This year an outstanding feature was added to the Norfolk Academy campus. After hard work and much planning, the Vaughan Aquatic Center was finally completed in October. The dedication ceremony of this new building included presentations from Mr. Tucker, a member of the Vaughan family, and Mr. Rueger, a member of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees, the Vaughan family, the swim team, and a great number of faculty and friends were on hand for the festivities. The new swim center, not only the home of the successful Bulldog swim team, serves also as a facility for community programs and Academy family recreation. We are very grateful for the generosity of the Vaughan family and we will enjoy this facility for years to come.

INCOGNITO

On Monday, October 31, Norfolk Academy was greeted by spirits, film heroes, cartoon characters, punk rockers, and a minority of normal people. This year's Halloween costumes were diverse and unique.

Throughout the day, students paraded around the school. The seniors traveled to Smith-Hofheimer to show off their duds. And, in turn, the first through third graders made the long journey around Royster and Tunstall to display their Halloween creations.

Some interesting costumes included a Hell's Angels Gang out of Royster, The Wizard of Oz Seniors and a total of nine Freddy Kruegers in the first through third grades.

Once again the Varsity Bulldogs were victorious, over Norfolk Catholic at 1988's Homecoming at Met Park. We proved our superiority over all foes, as an incredible season climaxed that memorable night.

Just as tradition calls, the friends fans, families and students met at Norfolk Academy's Pig Roast to honor a special guest, The Homecoming Pig. Afterwards the masses traveled to Met Park to the big contest. What a game it was; good ol'e Norfolk Academy trounced Norfolk Catholic decisively, proving once again that we are the champs!

POWDER PUFFS

Under the direction of Kevin Emerson and Tim Weaver, the juniors defeated their elders.

Who says females are the gentler sex? All thoughts of women being weaker were dispelled at this year's Powder Puff football game, pitting the rowdy, anxious juniors against the experienced, cunning seniors. The girls took the field shortly after the 3:20 bell, and from there on the action was unrelenting from both teams. Once the juniors started, the spectators began seeing touchdown after touchdown. The cheerleaders on both sides kept spirits up with enthusiastic chants. When the dust settled, the juniors came out on top, but it was a tough victory. After the game the two tribes shook hands, showing they could once again coexist in the Upper School.

Sarah Mastracco, Catherine Ash, and Katie Neidow head out to the football field.

CHARTER DAY

This year's Charter Day's Keynote speaker was Carl D. Parker, Alumni representative.

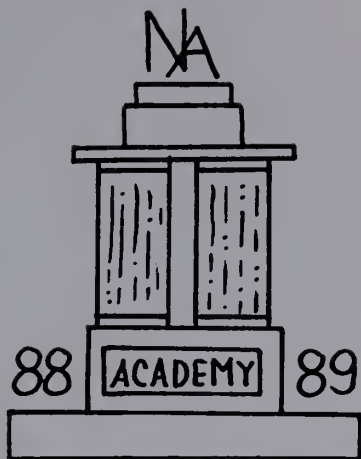

Norfolk Academy celebrated its 260th Anniversary on November 11, 1988. Mr. Carl D. Parker, III was the keynote speaker for the Charter Day Assembly. Karl Kottke presented Stephen M. Buchau with the Charter Day Award given annually by the Tunstall Student Council to a faculty member who has commanded the respect of colleagues and pupils alike through commitment to excellence in teaching and extra-curricular activities, knowledge in his field, and an ability to help and advise by creating a trustworthy environment for students. Charter Day was also the time for the grandparents of students in grades 1-6 to explore the environment where their grandchildren learn and expand their horizons. Each class gave special presentations for the grandparents' enjoyment. The day was not complete, however, until the seniors treated the first graders to ice cream during the last bell.

All smiles, Brian Jenkins, Rob Younce, Paige Wirth and Ashley Parker grab front row seats at the Charter Day assembly.

Despite several close losses to both state and national competition, Boys' Varsity Lacrosse finished with an overall successful 1988 season of eight wins and seven losses. Led by seniors John Meek, Drew Anton, David Kovner, Billy Magee, and Mike Hostutler, the Bulldogs advanced to the quarterfinals in the state T.I.L.T. tournament in the second sudden death overtime against rival STAB. With returning starters Ben Crumpler, Chad Spence and Ken Trinder on attack, as well as Will Payne, Tim Price, and Greg Riley leading the defense, the Varsity Bulldogs look to continue the winning tradition next year.

The Girls' Varsity Lacrosse team, led by co-captains Susannah Turner and Laurie Heilig, finished their successful season with a 9-5 record, and third place in the LIS championship. High scorers for the team were Eleanor Baird with 49 goals, and Angel Stanton with 44 goals. The team received outstanding help from seniors Liz Eckert and Mary Russ at midfield, Susannah Turner and Laurie Heilig at defense, Margaret Scott and Adrienne Pruden in goal.

The Junior Varsity Girls' team had a record of 5-5-2, with captains Kristin Millar and Vanessa MacKinley as high scorers. Much of the team's success can be attributed to the first year freshman goalie Amy Wolfson. Midfielders Julie Dotolo, Kate Hofheimer and Sam Salzberg moved the ball well, while the defensive strength came from Wing Watson.

HARDHITTERS

The '88 Edition of NA Varsity Baseball enjoyed another succesful season; a 22-5 record, a VPL Title, as well as a third consecutive TCIS Title. Under Coaches Z and Lanyi and with the help of some divine intervention, The Varsity Hardballers have compiled an impressive 77-27 record over the past four years.

Outstanding pitching , a very solid defense, and consistent hitting were the keys to this year's success. Led by B. D. Trickler's and Mannin Dodd's combined 16-3 pitching record, the Bulldogs were able to hold their opponents to a limited offensive output. Trickler also led a hitting attack that compiled a strong .330 team batting average by hitting .464 himself.

Hard work, a serious commitment to each other, and strict attention to sound mechanics were the intangibles the players displayed to insure yet another great season.

Varsity Softball improved their record to 5-8 overall and 4-4 in the TCIS. This was accomplished through the exceptional batting abilities of Hallie Karotkin and Ellen Williamson. Stephanie Stein proved to be a strong pitcher for the team throughout the entire season. Junior Jenny Polley had another great year catching with some help from Cheryl Hubbard. In the words of Coach Hudgins; "...in the past two seasons, Norfolk Academy has gone from being the joke of TCIS softball to being a team no one wants to play." In the 1989 season, with guidance from Coach Susan Regan, the Varsity Softball team should surpass their record despite the loss of Williamson and Karotkin.

BIG KICKS

The optimism surrounding the Girls' Varsity Soccer Team during pre-season was well founded as the girls finished the season 19-2-1. The girls continued their dominance in the TCIS, running their undefeated streak in the conference to 57 games while winning both the regular season and tournament championships.

The potent scoring attack was led by All-TCIS performers Emily Keogh (27G, 11A) and Paris Heidt (21G, 6A). All Conference senior captains Annie Adams and Alexis Karageorge anchored the defense which earned thirteen shutouts.

The Boys' Varsity team completed a successful season. They were TCIS champs, receiving seven out of nine trophies. Peter Van Gertruden and Eric Wu, both placing in the VPL tournament, led the team to fifth place. Jeff Butts, Mark Short, Scott London and Jim Shoemadine were other strong players. Their overall record was 16- 5 with no defeats in the TCIS. The Girls Varsity Tennis team, under the supervision of Coach Wren, developed from a younger team into more experienced tennis players. Mary Helen Donovan, as usual, was seeded in first position for the team. Holly Butts played second, Katie Harrison third, and Mary Kay Broecker fourth. The team finished second in the TCIS tournament. Mary Kay Broecker was the only player to win her singles match for the team.

SHOTPUTTERS

The track team had an excellent season. MVP's Yvonne Anderson and James Dare pulled in the points in the field events in most races, including the tournaments, while Chris McCarthy, Jeff Campsen, and Adam Gutterman dominated the 400 and 800 meters in the Championship meets. Brooke Becker and Trista Spurrier hurdled their way to many victories. Brother and sister duo, Mike and Amy Gravitt, led the track team in the distance events for this outstanding group.

This year's golf team also had a winning season with team captain Bobby McMichael receiving All-TCIS honors. The rest of these enthusiastic golfers topped individual goals and help the team to have their outstanding season.

Rebounding from last year's tough season, the Bulldogs, under the leadership of first year coach Rolfe Carawan, posted an impressive 6-3-1 record, and placed first in the TCIS. The Dogs got off to a quick start, undefeated in thier first six games. The Bulldogs sandwiched a tie to St. Christopher's between wins over Hampton Roads, Richmond Collegiate, Virginia Episcopal, Trinity Episcopal, and rival Nansemond Suffolk. Over the next three weeks the Dogs were handed tough losses by prep League foes Woodberry Forrest, Blue Ridge, and Fork Union. They rebounded, however, in their final outing with a 21-14 come-from-behind victory , and claimed sole possesion of the TCIS crown. The Bulldogs were led on offense by all TCIS selections Brack Hill, Brian Trickler and David Brazier and defensive All Conference selections Stewart Laster, David Brazier, David Ostroff, Tim Koch and Sherwin Anderson. The Girls' Varsity Basketball team, lead by co-captains Beth Powell and Mary Anne Philippakis, finished their season with an overall record of 15-11. Placing third in the TCIS standings, the Lady Bulldogs defeated arch-rivals Norfolk Catholic 53-43 to claim tournament victory. Kate Turner and CiCi Loomis joined tournament MVP Angel Stanton on the All-Tournamnt team. Other contributors to the history-making Bulldog squad included seniors Jeni Meyers, Kary Forrest, Emily Farthing, and Dixey Arrison, junior Christy Walsh, and sophomore Adrienne Pruden. With such an amazing finish, the Lady Bulldogs are remembered as Coach Renn's "Dream Team of '88."

Girls' Junior Varsity Basketball started off slowly but progressed to have a successful season. Under the direction of Coach Rob Fleenor, the JV girls finished with a record of 5-11 and were seeded fourth in the tournament.

Despite losing several key players to injuries, Boys' Varsity Soccer capped off another successful season with a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory over rival Hampton Roads Academy in the TCIS tournament championship game. Relying heavily on underclassmen new-comers as well as veteran seniors, including tri-captains Tommy Gill, Karl Kottke, and Seth Pickett, the team faced comparable foes in both the VPL and TCIS leagues, finishing with an overall record of 14-6-3. Those to make All-TCIS first team honors included senior goalie Tommy Gill, as well as tournament most valuable defensemen Karl Kottke, and team most valuable player Brett Spain, both of whom also made the All-VPL team. In addition, Austin Hill and Daniel Purrington made second team All-TCIS, with Seth Evans receiving honorable mention.

Lynn Ridinger, Varsity Coach of the Norfolk Academy Girl's Field Hockey Team, steered the lady dogs through another successful season: the outcome was an earned TCIS victory in the season's finale: the TCIS Tournament championship which went into overtime penalty strokes. The Bulldogs also finished first for the season in the TCIS, second for the season in the LIS, and third in the LIS Championship.

Jen Mosquera, a sophomore, defended the goal with the aide of senior sweeper Ellen Mayo, while Emily Keogh teamed up with Becky MacLachlan, to create a strong offense. Emily broke the school record for the greatest total number of goals scored in a season. Co-Captains Anne Marie Ambrose and Emily Keogh as well as Liza Berkley were named to both LIS and TCIS all tournament teams.

The NA Basketball team, though amassing only 10 victories, made honorable showings in both the VPL and TCIS leagues, finishing with an overall respectable season. With untimely injuries to clutch team members Brent Frain and Brian Jenkins, the Varsity hoopsters relied heavily on veterans BD Trickler and Ben Crumpler, with considerable contributions from underclassmen Seth Evans, Austin Hill, Jerry Sepic, and Brett Spain. Thus, Coach Trickler looks for continued success as he plans for next year.

Captains Mary Kay Broecker, Neil Kirk, and Tommy Gill led the 1988-1989 NA swim team through another winning season. The Bulldogs easily grabbed first place in the TCIS, and the girls' team completed the State tournament in second place while the boys captured first.

New this year to the swim program is a JO team, which allows interested younger swimmers to gain experience before joining the Varsity Squad. This was made possible by the addition of the Vaughan Aquatic Center. The building was completed in 1988 and now provides the site for home meets and practices. Both the JO team and the new swimming facility insures the continued success of the Bulldog swimmers.

The 1989 Wrestling team finished 6 and 7 in dual meets having several victories in the TCIS. Successful veterans included seniors Jiro Tanaka, Tim Koch, Murray Miller, John LoSciuto, and sophomore Peter Kottke. All five won TCIS Championships. All four seniors also placed in the VA. Prep League: Jiro, Murray, John, and Tim took third, second, fourth, and first respectively...Tim was also voted most outstanding wrestler. In the State Tournament (VISWA) Miller and Koch earned well-deserved championships, while Tanaka and spirited freshman Derek Sanger placed sixth. Coach Lindhjem said he was honored to work with such a solid group. "Our four seniors," he said, "provided a quality of leadership in character, academics, and wrestling that is rarely equalled."

The 1988-1989 Winter Gymnastics team was a young team with a lot of potential for growth. Led by co-captains Lori LeFevre and Jenny Hubbard, the Lady Tumblers ended with a victorious record. Jenny Hubbard guided the team, capturing first place all around at every gymnastics meet. Nataki Corneille and Lori LeFevre were usually right behind her in capturing second and third place. The novice members of the team, comprised of seventh graders, had a good showing of their new skills on each of the events. Coach Lynn Conkwright was proud of her young, energetic gymnasts and looks for great things from them in the next few years.

The Varsity Boys were led by Mike Gravitt, Adam Gutterman, and Greg Imbur, while senior Meade Dickerson also helped the team out in the hurdles. Rounding the team off in the field events were Duane Lawrence and Adam August. Although very young, the girls' team had a strong year. Doers and Thinkers

The creativity, curiosity, and spirit characteristic of NA society find their origins in the clubs and activities in progress in the Lower School. Such activities cultivate interest in community service, student leadership, thinking skills, acting, dancing, singing, and music. The by-product is just plain FUN.

Under the direction of the SCA, second-grade teacher Janice Ford took a group of fourth through sixth graders to Lake Taylor Nursing Home every other week. The students go to play bingo and to share their energy and friendship with the residents. The first graders, under the supervision of Chris Kypros, travelled to Westminster Canterbury for a Thanksgiving sing. A Salvation Army canned food drive, gift drives' for Lake Taylor and Dwelling Place Shelter, a "Pennies for People" cash collection, a winter clothing drive and individual class projects added to the list of Lower School community service efforts.

The sixth grade Pragmatic Practicum sponsored by Betty Moore challenges students to find practical, workable solutions to school and community related problems. The Odyssey of Mind program allows Middle and Lower Schools' best problem - solving student teams to compete against other schools. The regional competition this year was held on March 4, 1988, at Indian River High School. On April 6, the children of Lower School finally got to meet the man that they've heard so much about, Dr. Edward de Bono. Using de Bono theories and methods, Dr. Rachel Hopkins instructs students in developing creativity and lateral thinking skills which make our problem-solvers the best.

Third graders celebrated Colonial Day, by dressing in the garb of the 18th century and by learning colonial crafts and games. Grandparents Day coincided with Charter Day. The grandparents had received a special invitation with their grandchild's photo, and then got to visit the classrooms where their gems learn and grow. That afternoon, the seniors paired with first-grade friends to enjoy ice cream and sunshine. Later, first graders met with the seniors again for ice cream and "The Grinch Stole Christmas." Sports Day inspired a little friendly competition and fun, and Career Day welcomed parent professionals who shared their insights on the business world.

The creativity and vision of the Lower School students and faculty made 1988-1989 exciting and productive, a truly fun year.

Laura Tewes performs brilliantly in the Spring Arts Festival.

Norfolk Academy held its Spring Arts Festival on May 13th and 14th, in the twilight of Mr. Tucker's garden. The medley of events included scenes from Tennessee Williams' The Glass Menagerie, performed by Tommy Gill and Laura Tewes, The Velveteen Rabbit performed by Heidi Bensenhaver and Behzad Dayanim, Death of a Salesman by Erin McGrew and Howard Abraham, and Romeo and Juliet performed by Elizabeth Wardell and Behzad Dayanim. The NA dance-team along with Howard Abraham joined in the production. It was a very pleasant evening for all who attended.

FALL PLAY

This fall, The Academy family welcomed a new director, the talented and energetic Ron Newman. His first production, The Curious Savage, involved students not only in acting, but also in managing, publicity, make up, costume design, and stagecraft.

The Curious Savage, a comedy set in a Victorian sanatorium, revolves around Mrs. Savage (played by Romy Radin) who must decide how to keep her children (Jason Schechner, Carolyn Forestierre, David Cardon) from stealing her fortune. The wonderfully wacky inmates of the sanatorium delight in helping Mrs. Savage outwit her selfish children. The doctor (Danee Decker) and her assistant (Betsy Wardell), after playing both sides of the struggle, decide that Mrs. Savage is the most sane of them all.

The Curious Savage was warmly received with standing ovations and was a great beginning of a new season of N.A Theatre.

Happy Feet

The Norfolk Academy Dance Theatre presented the annual concert in Price Auditorium on Friday, November 11, at 8:30 and Friday, November 13, at 3:00. Students performed a variety of dance styles, including classical ballet, Jazz, and Modern dance. Sixty-one dancers, from grades seven through twelve, and from the New School of the Arts participated in this exciting event. This year's program was dedicated to four seniors, Kevin Grant, Jane Magpoc, Nicole Zimmerman, and Abigail Legaspi.

A SUNDAY IN TUNE

On December 4th, N.A. friends and family enjoyed the tenth annual Sunday with the Steinway concert. The show featured the musical talents of Matthew Van Hoose, Jiro Tanaka, and the Academy Singers, to name a few. The concert fare included pieces from classical as well as contemporary composers. One highlight was the N.A. Band's performance of "The Pink Panther." Led by saxophonist Len Shropshire, Alison Wolcott danced her rendition of the famous feline. The concert, as in past years, emphasized chamber music with individuals, ensembles, and duets. Participants worked with their individual teachers as well as being coached by the Academy Music director, Merle Becker, in preparation for this momentous day. This year's Sunday with the Steinway was great and we anticipate the same next year.

Jaquot (Jared Peterson) talks with Paul (David Cardon).

Carnival!, this year's winter musical, was a light, fun play for all who participated. In keeping with the family theme this year, the play involved not only students but faculty, administrators, and parents as well.

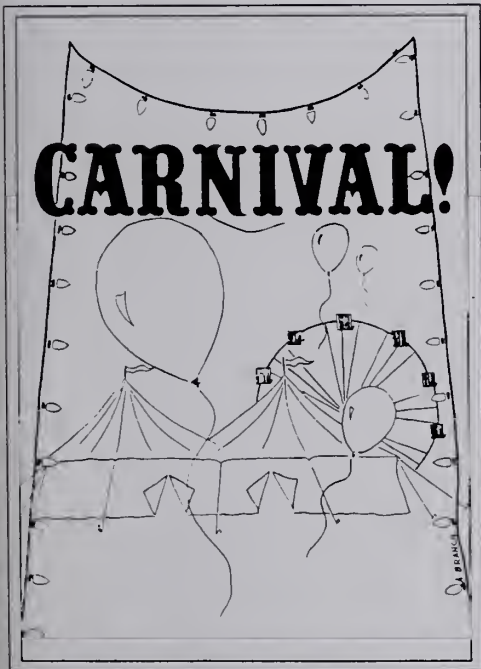

Under the guidance of the school's new drama director, Mr. Ron Newman, the musical had a polished, glitzy side and a deep emotional side. The story is about a girl, Lily (Jennie Beard, Ashley Parker) who comes to a fifth-rate carnival looking for a job. There she falls in love with the smooth, egotistical magician, Marco the Magnificent (Jon Montagna), while his lover Rosalie (Jane Magpoc) vies for his attention. Meanwhile, Paul (David Cardon) and Jaquot (Jared Peterson) get Lily to work with them and their puppets. As the play closes, the carnival is slowly working its way back to Paris and Lily discovers her love for Paul. This was a fine, colorful production.

Rosalie (Jane Magpoc) and Schlegel (Tony Feher) perform "Hamming." Perry Powell is the "very nice man" that the crowd sings to.

Siamese twins Gloria (Paige Wirth) and Gladis (Sarah Mastracco) show off their smiles.

Les Gracieuses

The Dance program at NA under the creative and technical guidance of the talented Elbert Watson allows students of all ages and abilities to refine their skills, to create and to perform. The dance program involves upwards of 60 students, set designers, costume designers, visiting dancers, and, of course, the supportive parents. 1988-1989 Team Captains Barbara Schlegel, Nicole Zimmerman, and Jane Magpoc not only modeled skill and dedication for the younger dancers, but also gave outstanding performances in several school arts productions.

For four generations, we've gone to great lengths to bring you the finest coffees and teas in the world.

Truly distinctive coffees and teas thrive in the most out-of-the-way places you can imagine. So, at The First Colony Coffee & Tea Company, bringing you the most extensive selection of fine coffees and teas available in the United States means searching the world over. And that search has been a labor of love for us since 1902.

COMMITMENT.

Commitment is what transforms a promise into reality.

It is the words that speak boldly of your intentions. And the actions which speak louder than the words.

It is making the time when there is none. Coming through time after time after time, year after year after year.

Commitment is the stuff character is made of; the power to change the face of things.

It is the daily triumph of integrity over skepticism.

89

To Laura, Meg, Chris, Beth, Emily and Paige,
Working with the class of '89 was quite a rage.

Your help and your patience through good times and bad,
Often helped keep me from going mad.
As I look back to the Senior year I will not feel the saddest, because I know for sure that our class is . .
